Intellectual Property Information

What is Intellectual Property?

Intellectual property refers to creations of the mind: inventions, literary and artistic works, and symbols, names, images, and designs used in commerce. Intellectual property is divided into two categories: Industrial property, which includes inventions (patents), trademarks, industrial designs, and geographic indications; and Copyright, which includes literary and artistic works such as novels, poems and plays, films, musical works, artistic works such as drawings, paintings, photographs and sculptures, and architectural designs. Rights related to copyright include those of performing artists in their performances, producers of phonograms in their recordings, and those of broadcasters in their radio and television programs. Category of Intellectual Property :

» Patent

A patent is an exclusive right granted for an invention, which is a product or a process that provides a new way of doing something, or offers a new technical solution to a problem.

» Trademark

A Trade Marks is a mark which distinguishes the goods and services of one trader from those of another. A mark includes words, logos, pictures, names, letters, numbers or a combination of these. A Trade Marks is used as a marketing tool to enable customers in recognizing the product of a particular trader.

» Copyright

Copyright is the exclusive right given to the owner of a copyright for a specific period. Copyright protection in Malaysia is governed by the Copyright Act 1987. There is no system of registration for copyright in Malaysia. A work that is eligible is protected automatically upon fulfillment of the following conditions:-

- sufficient effort has been expected to make the work original in character;
- the work has been written down, recorded or reduced to a material form;
- the author is qualified person or the work is made in Malaysia or the work is first published in Malaysia

» Industrial Design

An industrial design is the ornamental or aesthetic aspect of an article. The design may consist of three-dimensional features such as the shape and configuration of an article, or two-dimensional features, such as pattern and ornamentation. The design features must be applied to an article by any industrial process or means of which the features in the finished article appeal to eye.

4. Brief description of the invention.

The invention applies a hybrid approach to computer carbon pricing that is charged to road users as an alternative to congestion pricing

5. Full description of invention / Representation of Design (excluding trade mark). Provide drawing and other materials that help illustrate the description, if any.

The invention is algorithm that compute the amount of road charge to be paid by road users based on the both congestion level and carbon emission produced by the user's vehicle.

6. Date, place of invention / design and by whom invented / designed.

Date : 16/01/2016

1 Similarities : Both this Invention and Congestion/Area Road Pricing attempts to impose charges to road user for using the road and creating unwanted effects to the environment and roadway systems
Differences/Uniqueness : Unlike Congestion/Area Road Pricing that charges road users for entering city and contributing to congestion, this invention/approach charges road users for polluting the environment and releases CO2 to the atmosphere

1 Problem : All road users pollute the environment regardless of whether they create congestion or not. There must be a method to fine users based on the level of pollution they created, not the level of congestion Edit

Solution : Create an algorithm that applies certain road user parameters (e.g. type of car, type of fuel, etc.) to compute carbon road pricing

15. DECLARATION

The information which is provided on this form will be user by the University to access the ownership of the intellectual property rights, potential third party claims to those rights and obligations to external sponsors. Incorrect or incomplete detail could lead, the reduction or loss of commercialization revenues, or the invalidation of patent applications.

I declare that the information which I have provided in this form is, to the best of my knowledge and belief, correct and complete and that the contributors named are all the original creators of this invention/design. I also agree to cooperate in seeking or other legal protection in the name of University/institution and in the commercialization of this invention/design. I also confirm that I have notified the University/institution of any conflict of interest which may exist in relation to the invention.
